

Jennifer Williams

National Director - Sydney Research

+61 2 8234 8116

+61 400 116 343

jennifer.williams@m3property.com.au

Jennifer is the National Director of Research and is responsible for management of the National Research team, providing analysis and forecasts of property market indicators across all asset classes throughout Australia and regular market publications.

Jennifer has worked across all the major property sectors including office, retail, industrial, residential and hotels. She has also contributed to a number of national and global property industry publications.

Jennifer's previous property based roles were senior positions in international agency-based research teams at CBRE and JLL, working across all the major sectors.

Jennifer commenced employment with m3property in August 2012.

Qualifications

Associate of the Australian Property Institute (AAPI)

Bachelor of Arts (Human Geography) Macquarie University

Bachelor of Commerce Property Economics), Western Sydney University

Diploma in Business (Real Estate Management)